MEETING MINTUES
DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA COMMISSION ON SELECTION AND TENURE ("COST") OF
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGES OF THE OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS

NOVEMBER 10, 2014

A meeting of the District of Columbia Commission on Selection and Tenure of Administrative Law Judges of the Office of Administrative Hearings was held on Monday, November 10, 2014 at 1:30 p.m. at the Office of Administrative Hearings, Potomac Room, 441 Fourth Street, N.W., Suite 450 North, Washington, D.C. 2001.

Commission Members:

Present: Yvonne Williams, Joe Onek, James. W. Cooper, Wanda Tucker, Nadine Wilburn

Absent: None

Quorum Present: Yes

Others Present: Traci L. Hughes, Director of the Office of Open Government

Angela Petrova, Attorney-Advisor with Office of Administrative Hearings

The meeting was called to order at 1:30 p.m. by Chair, Yvonne Williams

D.C. Open Meetings Act Presentation by Director, Traci Hughes

Director, Traci Hughes provided a presentation to the COST regarding the requirements of the D.C. Open Meetings Act ("OMA"), D.C. Code §2-571, et seq., which include the following:

- The COST is a public body, and is therefore subject to the OMA when a quorum is present.
- Generally, there are 9 categories under which a public body can close the public session and discuss matters in a private, closed session. One of the categories includes hiring/personnel matters.
- The OMA requires the COST to notify the public of any meeting by listing within the meeting notice the following information: the date, time, location, the agenda, and whether any portion of the public meeting will be held in closed session. The public notice shall be listed in the D.C. Register and posted on the D.C. city-wide central calendar, OAH website and publically.
- The OMA requires that all public body meetings be recorded by audio and/or video. Considering the COST primarily meets to discuss personnel matters, the majority of the session will be closed to the public and the audio/video portion of the public meetings will typically will be very short. The COST can then upload the audio of the public meeting on the D.C. city wide central calendar. It is recommended that the COST utilize a separate recorder for matters discussed in closed session.
- Director Hughes notified the COST that 441 Fourth Street, NW, Suite 540 South is equipped with audio and video and is available to DC government agencies and public bodies to hold and record public meetings.
- The COST must call meetings to order in public session, confirm whether a quorum is present, roll call the present parties to vote on whether to enter into closed session, cite the OMA regulation(s) that apply thereto, discuss business that falls into one of the nine categories that qualify for closed session meetings, re-open the public session and adjourn the meeting.
- The COST may convene via conference call, in-person, or on the web, as long as the meeting method of choice allows for the public to hear/view the public session.
- Director Hughes clarified that while the OMA provides the public the right to attend the public session, it does not afford the public a right to speak. Director Hughes also noted that if any public comments will be allowed, the COST can mandate the format by which they are received.

- Director Hughes concluded her presentation to the COST and left the meeting at approximately 2:00 p.m.

Vote to Close Public Meeting and Enter Closed Session

Chair, Yvonne Williams stated that the commission will next discuss OAH personnel matters, specifically the reappointment status of the following five Administrative Law Judges (“ALJ”):

1. Elizabeth D. Figueroa
2. Margaret A. Mangan
3. Samuel McClendon
4. Erika L. Pierson
5. John T. Rooney

Chair Williams cited to D.C. Code 2-575(b)(10), which allows for closed sessions “to discuss the appointment, employment, assignment, promotion, performance evaluation, compensation, discipline, demotion, removal or resignation of government appointees, employees or officials.” Chair Williams roll called the matter, which Joe Onek and James Porter voted in favor of closure.

The meeting was adjourned at approximately 2:30 p.m.
Minutes submitted by Attorney-Advisor Angela Petrova, OAH

April 20, 2017 4:00 PM

Judge Yvonne Williams Chair, Commission on Selection and Tenure of ALJs

Chair: Call to Order

Roll Call: Joseph Onek, Commission Member; Robert Hawkins, Commission Member; Eugene Adams; CALJ (ex-officio Commission Member); Louis Neal, OAH Deputy GC (Recorder);

Absent: Nadine Wilburn, Commission Member – Sent a list of her choices of candidates (with Onek) to hire

Chair: Closes Meeting to Public

Resumes reviewed by all Commissioners and Chief; only one position but Chief may consider another position

Chair: Is the plan to make an offer to the preferred candidate after the interviews; and have a waiting list as well?

Members: Yes

Chair: The list from Nadine Wilburn includes: Butler, Holder, Taylor, Older(?), Webster. Let's talk about two people: Walker Turner, for whom Rigby wrote a letter of recommendation; Deborah Carroll, for whom Beverly Perry lobbied for.

Chief Adams: I get all of that; but may the best person win; but give them interviews.

Onek: How many should be in the final interview?

Chief Adams: 7 or 9.

Chair: Let's go over the list one by one and discuss, then vote.

Onek: Okay, my selection is Alexis Taylor; Nadine Wilburn selected Holder

Chair: What is the salary?

Chief Adams: $162,000

Onek: Some are DC residents, some are not. Must they be?

Chief Adams: Yes, but they have 180 after selection or they forfeit the selection.

Hawkins: But there is a preference to DC and DC Government applicants.

Onek: The military candidate is very impressive. But their experience is ONLY military.

Hawkins: Some of these applicants strike me as being at the end of their careers.

Onek: We really want someone for at least 8 years. – that excludes Holder, Thomas, DiSousa, Greg Johnson.

Chair: Let's put Webster, Peter Segetti to the side for now. What's OAH's position on reapplicants – preference?

Chief Adams: No. No position on that.

Chair: Terrazin, Parson – those are reapplicants; Parson is very early in their career.

Chief Adams: Alesandro Terrazoni – the thought is, does not play well with others; aloof – but keep on the list.

Hawkins: I have two definites: Deborah Carroll and Jason Lederstein; two "maybes": Lindsey Appiah, Rachel Redfern Terrazoni. Cross off David

Onek: My choices are Taylor, Holder and Appiah

Chair: I like Redfern; Taylor, Butler and Horton (because of his IRS background – but he's non-DC) Maybe Jason Lederstein – he's with Child and Family Services, Legal Counsel's Division

Hawkins: There are questions about the ALJ corps' diversity. The largest demographic is black women and white men. The last black man hired was 8 years ago – McClendon. This group has only one black male candidate. Regarding Lederstein, we can interview her regarding her capacity to deal with the public, collegiality; we've not seen her interact with the common man.

Chair: Lisa Butler – one of Nadine's selections; let's put her to the side. We can put Horton to the side. This McWhirter has a lot of doc review. This person shouldn't get an interview. So, here are the people we will give interview: Deb Carroll, Walker-Turner, Terrazoni (no interview, but will consider), Redbern, Taylor, Lederstein, Webster and Walker-Turner (courtesy for Erik Washington and Ann Blackburn-Rigsby)

Our Tier 2 candidates are: Johnson - too much bankruptcy experience.

Scheduling for interviews. We can interview four in the morning and three in the afternoon. What is everyone's availability?

Chief Adams: I'm available Tuesday through Friday. Wednesday is hard. But possible.

Hawkins: Tuesday works for me.

Onek: Tuesday is fine with me.

Chair: I can do Tuesday, except 12:30pm to 1:30pm So, April 25th. Let's start at 10 am. We can call the interviewees. We should have a back-up day. How does Friday the 28th look? Say, between 11:30am and 1pm. Those who can't do the 25th, we can do the 28th. But let's only advertise the 28th and wait and see.

Chief Adams: That's fine, we can do the interviews at OAH in the Anacostia Room.

Chair: Ok. If there is nothing else. This meeting is adjourned.

Meeting adjourned at 5:15pm.

5:11 PM.
